Pompous Ceremony at Cronberg in Honor of Departed Empress.

ROYALTY PRESENT AT THE REQUIEM

King Edward Deposited a Wreath On the Casket Containing the Relics of His Eldest Sister—News From Foreign Lands.

Cronberg, Aug. 12.—People flocked into Cronberg to see the august personages who would attend the requiem service Sunday over the remains of Dowager Empress Frederick. The officers of the regiments of which the deceased was honorary colonel stood guard over the coffin. Carriages from Homburg, Frankfurt and other points brought those invited to the solemn ceremony. Considerable bodies of troops, both infantry and cavalry, also arrived. At 2:30 p. m. the Eightieth regiment formed up along the streets and the band of the Bockenheim hussars took its stand over the church. Every window, balcony and housetop was filled with people awaiting the arrival of the imperial personages. Baron Von Reischal, court marshal of the dowager empress, superintended the arrangements. Sir Frank Lascelles, the British ambassador, was among the first to arrive. He took a seat facing the coffin, which was covered with wreaths. On either side of the coffin were four officers holding the standards of Prussia and of the deceased. Between them and the coffin were other officials bearing drawn swords. Gradually the church filled with officers in splendid uniform and women wearing deep mourning. The congregation included the Duke of Connaught, the Duke of Cambridge and several members of the British royal household, the Count Von Buelow, Count Von Waldersee, Dr. Spielhagen and General Von Lindequist.

At 4 o'clock the roll of muffled drums announced the arrival of Emperor William and King Edward, who had driven together from Homburg. The emperor, wearing the black uniform of the empress' own Posen Hussars, led Queen Alexandra into the church, while King Edward, in blue uniform of the King Edward Prussian dragoons, conducted Empress Augusta Victoria. Princess Victoria, with Crown Prince Frederick William and a number of his suite, followed. Their majesties occupied a pew to the left of the chancel, the one in which the deceased used to sit, while grouped around the chancel stood the other imperial and royal personages mentioned, together with Prince Adalbert of Prussia, Prince and Princess Schaumburg-Lippe, the hereditary Prince of Saxe-Meiningen, Prince and Princess Charles of Hesse, the Grand Duke of Baden, the Crown Prince and Princess of Greece, with their children and the Prince of Reuss, together with the suites of all.

As the organist played the funeral march Dr. Dryander advanced to the head of the coffin. The four eldest sons of Emperor William stepped forward with drawn swords and stood close to the coffin. The choir from Berlin cathedral sang "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," and Dr. Dryander read a specially written prayer and delivered an oration extolling the virtues of the departed empress, dwelling on her trials and sorrows. The choir sang the anthem, "The Spirit Sayeth They May Rest From Their Labors," followed by the hymn, "Wenn Ich Enimel Soll Schieden," and "Be Thou Faithful Unto Death." As the last strains died away King Edward and Queen Alexandra advanced and laid a wreath upon the coffin. The king remained standing a few moments alone beside the coffin and then turned and left the church, which was slowly evacuated.

The service owed much of its impressiveness to the historical associations recalled by the mediaeval edifice in which it was held. At its conclusion Empress Augusta Victoria and Queen Alexandra drove in a victoria to Homburg, the emperor and king following in a second carriage. The streets were congested with sightseers long after the imperial and royal personages departed.

Edward's Arrival at Homburg.
Homburg, Aug. 12.—The city of Homburg was astir early to witness the arrival of King Edward. Emperor William in the uniform of a field marshal, accompanied by the empress and their sons, together with their suites, was followed by Count Von Waldersee, Count Von Buelow and others, who drove to the railway station about 9 o'clock. The emperor reviewed the guard of honor. At 9:16 the royal train arrived. King Edward, in the blue uniform of the Prussian dragoons, alighted with Queen Alexandra, Princess Victoria and Prince Nicholas of Greece. Emperor William affectionately clasped the hand of the British monarch and gave him a cordial welcome. He then kissed the hands of Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria. Their majesties conversed a few minutes and their respective suites were introduced. King Edward warmly shaking the hand of Count Von Waldersee. The guard of honor then marched past, after which the imperial and royal party was escorted to a hotel, where the emperor and empress remained a quarter of an hour, and then drove to Homburg castle. The streets were not lined with troops and the carriages were not escorted by cavalry. King Edward and Queen Alexandra returned the visit of the emperor and empress at the castle.

CRISPI IS DEAD.

Former Premier of Italy Reaches the End of Life's Journey.

Naples, Aug. 12.—Signor Crispi died at 7:40 o'clock Sunday evening. He was surrounded by the members of his family and several intimate friends. The news was immediately telegraphed to King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helen. The body will be conveyed by steamer to Palermo, where the municipality will prepare for a great public funeral. It is rumored that Signor Crispi's will authorizes a prominent Italian politician to examine his papers and to publish his memoirs.

Stolen Gold Recovered.

San Francisco, Aug. 12.—The mystery of the great bullion robbery at the Selby Smelting works is cleared and the missing gold recovered. John Winters, the suspect now in custody, was reported to have made a full confession and to have declared that the treasure was lying in the shallow water of Casquinez straits. The confession, it is said, was made in the office of Captain of Detectives Seymour after the prisoner had been examined at great length by ex-Chief of Police Lees and Superintendent Hayes of the Pinkerton agency. The officials chartered a tug and, taking Winters with them, went up the bay to the smelting works. Here several detectives were taken on board and the tug proceeded to Crockett. The gold bars amounting to $230,000, were soon located. The detectives worked on the suspect Jack Winters for a whole day, with the result that he confessed his crime. The spot chosen by him was a poor one for the secreting of so much treasure, it being at the end of the railroad wharf, but a short distance from the company's plant, and but a few feet of water covered its hiding place.

DeWitt Overworked.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 12.—Rumcor, almost always busy with Minister of Finance DeWitt, has set afloat various stories of ill health to account for his deferring his proposed journey to Manchuria in order to take a cure at Wiesbaden. M. DeWitt is a sort of Atlas in the Russian world, and is one of those natures which are alike greedy of work and unwilling to drop even for a spell the reins of power. The most persistent report is that the minister is threatened with meningitis. The truth seems to be that he has undergone unusual strain during the last 12 months and is in need of a thorough rest.

Dead Man Identified.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—An aged man who was stricken with apoplexy while walking in Washington park, and who died in the Chicago hospital, has been identified as Theodore F. Colburn, owner of various mining properties in the west and formerly in the charge of the marine fire department in New Orleans. Mr. Colburn lived in Chicago with his sister, Mrs. A. T. Gillett.

Deal in Pine Land.

Marinette, Wis., Aug. 12.—The J. C. Brown Lumber company sold to the Weyerhaeuser syndicate 70,000 acres of pine land in Louisiana for $650,000. The pine is located in the parishes of Vernon, Sabine, Calcasieu and Natchitoches. There are over 500,000,000 feet of pine on the tract.

NIPPED ON SUSPICION.

Seem to Have Been an Industrious Pair and Quite in Demand.

ALLEGED EXPERT BADGER WORKERS

Also Accused of Being Dextrous in Reaching After Diamonds—Pawn Tickets in Packs—Woman Said to Have Confessed.

Boston, Aug. 12.—The police have under arrest for Chicago officers two alleged expert "badger workers," and the evidence procured, together with the confession the woman is said to have made, makes it appear that the prisoners are more than ordinarily adroit in crime.

The woman is Nellie Pentony, with such aliases as Nellie Watson, May Dunn and "Blonde" Nellie. Her partner is John Pentony, alias John Warner, alias John Barr. When searched at police headquarters the woman's tiny pocketbook concealed in her dress yielded seven diamond rings and a diamond studded locket and pawn tickets for diamonds pawned in New York city, Buffalo, Chicago and Cleveland. In the room the couple had occupied were found jewelry and other articles.

The arrest came about by accident, the woman being taken a few nights ago for night walking. She was fined in court and was sent to Deer Island in default of bail. Her husband secured cash bail and got her release, coming to the city from the island with her. After the woman's arrest Chief Inspector Watts was notified from Chicago that two "badger workers" and diamond nippers had come east and were thought to be in Boston. The description furnished seemed to fit the woman, but the officers were not certain about the man. When Pentony and the woman stepped off the Deer Island boat they were escorted to police headquarters and were given an opportunity to tell their history. The story both told was smooth, but when the woman was confronted with the Bertillon measurements and pictures taken of her in St. Louis May 29, 1897, when arrested there for larceny, she admitted that her part of the story was wrong. They were accordingly locked up for a hearing.

The police say four pawn tickets obtained in Boston were for jewelry pledged for $150, and 15 tickets for jewelry pledges in other places were for diamond rings and lockets. In the room of the couple were two satchels. In the man's satchel were articles and pawn tickets for jewelry stolen from houses in this vicinity and a gold watch picked from a man's pocket in Lynn, Mass.

Pentony admitted having been arrested at different times in New York and Chicago, and at the former place an indictment is held against him.

WITH A BOMB

Some One Attempted to Blow Up a British Transport at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Aug. 12.—What is regarded as an attempt of a Boer sympathizer to blow up a British transport occurred when a terrific explosion was heard at the stock landing, where the Harrison steamer Mechanician is moored. The Mechanician is to carry mules to South Africa. The explosion shook houses, rattled dishes and windows, and awakened people for some distance around. Most of the crew of the ship were asleep, but the explosion brought them quickly from their berths to the deck. An examination showed a large dent in the starboard side of the ship. Two plates at the water's edge had been sprung and considerable water was let into the ship. The pumps were immediately put to work, and later it was found that the damage done was not serious. The crew of the vessel denied that there were any explosives aboard, and there seems little doubt, according to the statements of those who examined the ship, that the explosion was from the outside and that some sort of bomb or torpedo had been used.

Representation in Alabama.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 12.—The constitutional convention, by a decisive majority, adopted a provision that hereafter representation in Alabama shall be based on population, and it shall not be changed by constitutional amendments. This settled a controversy between delegates from black-belt counties and delegates from white counties. The black belt feared that with the negro eliminated an effort would be made to reduce the representation.

Saloon Raided.

Unionville, Mo., Aug. 12.—At Mendota, a town of 1,000 people on the Iowa state line, 30 women raided a "joint" run by John Murray, emptied all the liquor found in the place into the gutter, and demolished the fixtures.

Woods, the prize winner in the land lottery, who claimed a strip along the Lawton town site to the injury of Miss Mattie Beats, the Kansas telephone girl, has appealed to ex-Governor Richards, who conducted the opening, to have government troops put the trespassers off his homestead. Telegraphic correspondence is said to have passed between Governor Richards and Major H. L. Scott, commanding officer at Fort Sill, but no official order has yet been given. Squatters are camped on nearly every lot in the 160 acres of the Woods homestead claim. They have sunk wells and contracted for the erection of frame buildings. Woods professes to be unconcerned. His lawyers declare that if his homestead rights are denied every other homestead entry is worthless and chaos will prevail.

IRON MASTERS ELATED

They Expect to Win a Speedy Victory Over the Strikers.

WESTERN WORKMEN WILL NOT QUIT

Mills in Ohio, Illinois and Wisconsin Continue in Operation—Lodges of Amalgamated Association Do Not Obey Strike Order.

Pittsburg, Aug. 12.—The iron masters are claiming victory in the great steel strike because of the refusal of the Amalgamated men at South Chicago, Joliet and Bayview to obey the general strike order of President Shaffer, and success in maintaining operations in other plants where it was anticipated that there would be serious trouble.

The strike leaders meet the claims of victory with the assertion that their cause is making satisfactory progress and that they will show themselves masters of the situation before the contest has progressed much farther. They do not conceal their disappointment at the refusal of the western brethren to join with them in the strike, but none of the leaders would discuss the defection. They declared there would be developments throughout the week that would materially change the situation. They would not say, however, what they had in mind or how their cause was to gain strength. It was said that they were counting on strong aid from the American Federation of Labor and other union labor organizations, but those bodies have not yet given public indication of what they will do.

The Amalgamated Association has developed great strength in Wheeling district and has made gains in some of the Pennsylvania districts.

The steel officials, who kept in communication with their superintendents and district managers, summarized the situation thus: South Chicago, Joliet and Bayview at Milwaukee voted to stay in; the Ohio works of the National Steel company, Youngstown, and the King, Gilbert & Warner plants of the National Steel company at Columbus resumed without trouble; the Homestead, Edgar Thompson, Duquesne, Upper and Lower Union and Howard axle works of the Carnegie group, employing more than 15,000 men, resumed work without trouble; the converting and the blooming mills of the National Tube company at McKeesport had started without difficulty, and that Bellaire had been only partially crippled. They were also advised that the men of the Boston rolling mills at McKeesport had notified the National Tube company that they would go out and that at the National Tube plant at McKeesport many men would go out. They were also notified that their Wheeling plants were crippled.

The steel officials were elated over their showing at the Carnegie plants and in Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin, and expressed confidence in speedy victory over the Amalgamated Association.

Tithes For Strike Fund.

Cincinnati, Aug. 12.—Local Lodges 1, 5 and 8 of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers of Covington and Newport, Ky., have been notified to contribute 10 per cent of their wages for the benefit of the striking members. All the mills in these cities are independent of the trust, and no trouble is anticipated.

Sailed For South Pole.

Kiel, Aug. 12.—The German steamer Gauss, bearing the German Antarctic expedition under the leadership of Professor Ehrlich von Drygalski of Berlin, sailed from Kiel. Herr Rothe, undersecretary of the interior, wished the expedition godspeed on behalf of Emperor William and the German nation, and Professor von Drygalski made a suitable reply. The crews of vessels in the harbor heartily cheered the departing Gauss. All the farewell festivities, including the banquet, were omitted in consequence of the death of Dowager Empress Frederick. The scientists accompanying the expedition are Dr. Ernst von Hoeffen of Kiel, zoologist and botanist; Dr. Hans Gatzert of Munich, bacteriologist; Dr. Emil Philipp of Breslau, geologist, and Dr. Friederich Bidlmaier of Lauffen, meteorologist. If nothing is heard from the expedition a searching party will be sent out in 1904.

New Trial Denied.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 12.—In the Yukon murder case the Dominion government has notified O'Brien's counsel that they do not see the merit in his contention that the judge admitted improper evidence, and the application for a new trial will not be granted. The law will therefore take its course and O'Brien will be hanged on Aug. 23.

An eastern journal says the selection of Rear Admiral Howison, U. S. N., to fill the court of inquiry which will look into the actions of Admiral Schley is surprising to some people with whom the former talked more than ordinary freedom when the news of the battle of Santiago reached Boston. It is claimed he expressed an opinion on the subject and that opinion adverse to Schley. If he has done this he will, of course, as an honorable gentleman decline to serve.

It appears to be an easy matter to get people to put up their money to start national banks. Since the passage of the act of March 14, 1900, authorizing the establishment of national banks of small capital, there have been organized 665 national banking associations, with an aggregate capital of $34,267,000 and a bank deposit of $10,006,200. Of these banks 457 started with a capital of less than $50,000 each and 208 with a capital of $50,000 or more. The South has 159 of these new banks, of which 103 have a capital of less than $50,000.

SENATOR PETTIGREW claims that, as a member of the Senate, it came to his notice that Admiral Sampson had suppressed records, which made it appear that Admiral Schley was disobeying orders, when in fact he was obeying orders issued by Sampson, but which afterward in some mysterious manner suppressed. Mr. Pettigrew will make a valuable witness, it appears, in the court of inquiry. It is proven that Mr. Sampson has done anything of the kind, he should be punished as such an offender deserves.

PEOPLE FOR SCHLEY.

Senator Burton, of Kansas, discussing the forthcoming Schley Court of Inquiry, sized up the affair about right when he said:

"Ninety per cent. of the American people have already decided in favor of Admiral Schley in this controversy, and it matters not what the verdict of the court may be. It may decide in favor of Admiral Sampson, or it may vindicate Admiral Schley. What it will do, however, will cut absolutely no figure in public estimation. I think the American people regard this affair as a closed incident. The conviction is a settled one, and it can never be changed. I have no personal feelings in the matter, and I do not believe the people at large have. Sampson, like Schley, is undoubtedly a brave and capable officer, but Schley produced the results, and it is that for which he is to be given credit. That is what the American people want, and that is what they got. There can be no doubt in the public mind that if the engagement had proved disastrous to the American squadron Schley would have been blamed for the outcome."

RURAL MAIL DELIVERY.

Representative Kehoe Urging the Establishment of Routes in This District.

[Washington Special to Courier-Journal.]

Upon the request of Representative Kehoe, of the Ninth Kentucky district, the Postoffice Department will send an agent to the State before the end of the month to report on applications for rural free delivery. Mr. Kehoe has received assurances that every effort will be made by the department to establish these routes at the earliest possible time.

"The excuse given by the Postoffice Department that the opposition of the fourth-class postmasters is responsible for the failure to obtain rural free delivery service in Kentucky is wholly without foundation," said Mr. Kehoe. "The truth is we have a number of petitions now on file in the department unacted upon. If the department will not give the service a fair trial in the State how can any great demand be expected? It is true the fourth-class postmaster is opposed to having his office abolished, and it is only natural. I think the department errs in discontinuing these postoffices. There is no reason why rural delivery should not be conducted on much the same principle as city delivery. It would not be an extra expense to keep the offices."

"The postmasters obtain their salaries on a stamp cancellation basis, and when a little office is discontinued the salary of the country postmaster indirectly goes into the pocket of the town postmaster. If the offices were allowed to remain the farmer would patronize them, or depend upon the rural free delivery carrier, as most suits his convenience. In cities we order mail left in our postoffice boxes or delivered at our homes, and the farmer, if he desires it, should be granted the choice of going to a postoffice or transacting his business through the rural carrier."

READ THIS!

The Investment Company has taken its place as a permanent institution, and the prejudices that obstructed its early growth are disappearing in the light of experience in its workings. For many months the people of Mason County have been sending over $1,000 a month to be invested in companies at Lexington and other places. Now that we have a company at home whose plan is the latest and most approved, and whose managers are personally known to you as men of standing and integrity, why not put your investment with them? Patronize your home institution and your city and county will develop.

There is still a lingering prejudice in the minds of many people against the investment business. This arises largely from lack of information as to the real principles upon which the business is founded.

Our older citizens remember when the first building association was started in Maysville. There was a great deal of opposition to it, but it lived down the prejudice and was the forerunner of the three prosperous institutions of that kind in Maysville. The building association depends for its success entirely upon co-operation.

Life insurance was a rarity in Maysville in the preceding generation, but now it is difficult to find a man entirely uninsured, who is healthy enough to stand a medical examination.

Life insurance is run upon precisely the same principles as an investment company, but pays the profits to the dead man's estate. Our plan is open to the sick and feeble to whom life insurance is barred, as well as to the healthy and strong. Don't let prejudice stand in your way because the business is unfamiliar to you, but investigate for yourself, and you, like others, will be convinced. Call at our office or write to the just as the town clock was striking fifteen minutes past 3. Everything was still as death. There was a mighty uproar in the tin department, when a tin cup raised shrieking, trembling and exclaiming that their kind was to be sold for 5c. Boastfully the table cloth was heard in a loud voice saying, I am 1½ yards wide and thirty-six inches long and of the finest grade and I am to be sold for only 15c. Carpet tacks were next heard from. There are 500 of us and our points are of sharpened steel and our heads can be hammered for only 3c. Rubber collars were heard from next, in a low voice saying, "You can launder me in a bowl with soap and water and I will go around your rubber neck for only 25 cents." Silver tea spoons were heard in a silver tongue. "There are only six of us, just one half dozen; we shine and shine beautiful to behold. We are guaranteed to last a lifetime. We are to be sacrificed for only 50c. There was a great uproar heard in rug, straw matting, china, glass, hosiery, linen and goods furnishing goods department. This man fit-toed away silently, but knowingly, that on account of space we could not tell you what they had to say, but the goods talk for themselves at the 5 and 10 cent store, 45 West Second St., Maysville, Ky.

THE BEE HIVE

"It is a Great Sale!"

Such is the general verdict expressed by the thousands of fortunate people that have visited the Bee Hive in the last few days. Don't put off until to-morrow what you can buy to-day is a good maxim to follow during the great mid-summer sale now going on. Every day brings new bargains—some lots are large and some are small. Be on the safe side and call every day. All summer goods must go and ridiculously low prices shall be the propeller that will drive them with tremendous speed.

This will open up a fine coal and iron region.

OUT FOR A GOOD TIME.

Members of the "Sewer Pipe Club" of Cincinnati Were Here Sunday Enjoying an Outing.

The Sewer Pipe Club, an organization composed of prominent citizens of Cincinnati, arrived here Sunday morning at 11 o'clock on the steamer Al. Martin. The arrival of the party was announced by the firing of cannon and the blowing of whistles, and for a while it seemed like the seat of the South African war had been transferred to the Ohio valley, but as the steamer approached the landing and the sweet music of the band fell on one's ears, he might have imagined Oom Paul Kroeger was about to visit Maysville. After a stay of thirty minutes the steamer proceeded on its way up the river, returning here at 1 o'clock on the way home.

Among the number were Judge Leuders, Lee W. Wiltsee, F. G. Huntington, Jason Hewett, Dr. C. Tabb Pearce, a former Maysvillian, and many others prominent in political and social circles of the Queen City. The members of the club were out for a good time and were evidently enjoying the trip.

Mr. Phil Yago, another Maysville man, was a member of the band on board the steamer.

Astounded the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well,—can eat anything. It's a great tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach and liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

A RUNAWAY.

Captain Phister and Mr. Ben Poyntz Meet With Accident While Returning From Glen Springs.

Captain C. M. Phister and Mr. Ben Poyntz drove to Glen Springs Saturday and spent Sunday with their families who are sojourning there. This morning at 4:30 o'clock the gentlemen left for Maysville, taking the Tollesboro route. This route is a very rough one, and is seldom traveled, as the other roads are better and much safer.

At some point between Glen and Tollesboro they met with an accident of some kind, causing their horse to run off. The animal was caught in Tollesboro at 6 o'clock, with only the harness and one shaft of the vehicle. Mr. Duke Pollitt at once sent a party out over the road to ascertain the extent of the accident but when the Tollesboro bus left there no further information had been received.

The telephone line was down this morning and it was impossible to obtain news as to the extent of the accident.

Thomas Hunt is twenty-one years old. He married the older sister of the two, who is twenty-four.

The rush at the Bee Hive Saturday evening to attend their special Saturday night bargain sale was so large that at times it was impossible to gain admittance to the store. The crowd stood about the store and thronged the sidewalk for an hour or longer waiting for the sale to begin. When the gong was finally tapped there was a regular jam at the bargain counters. Customers even forced their way behind the counters so eager were they to secure some of the bargains. And yet there are merchants who think it doesn't pay to advertise.

For the removal of ringworms there is a remedy that is infallible. It is the milk from the stem of a fresh fig. The milk of lettuce stalk is also said to be good for roughness and discoloration of the skin. The simplest old fashioned remedies are very often the best for a variety of toilet purposes and, though not invariably infallible by any means, should always be tried at least by a prudent woman before having recourse to patented remedies of various sorts, which may be very injurious.
